VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS it has been represented to us that it is expedient that no enlisting rewards shall in future be payable for men who fraudulently enlist, even although there be no complicity or neglect on the part of the enlisters;

Our will and pleasure is, that Article 445 of our Royal Warrant of 3rd February, 1866, be cancelled, and the following Article substituted in lieu thereof:—

445. Rewards shall not be allowed for men who enlist while in a state of desertion, nor for Militia Volunteers who fraudulently enlist into our Army, nor for discharged soldiers who fraudulently re-enlist.

Given at our Court at Balmoral, this 28th day of August, 1869, in the thirty-third year of our reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,
EDWARD CARDWELL.

2. He may also be paid a subsistence allowance for the journey at the rate of 6*d.* for any distance by land beyond 50 and not exceeding 100 miles, and 6*d.* for every additional 50 miles, provided he is not supplied with rations at the public expense.

If conveyance by rail or steamer cannot be provided, the man will be paid subsistence money at 1*d.* a mile, as laid down in Article 484 of the Pay Warrant of 3rd February, 1866.

Cl. 123.—Hospital Orderlies.

1. Orderlies will be appointed in the proportion of three for a battalion of infantry or a regiment of cavalry, and one for every battery of artillery.

2. Should the number of sick exceed ten for each permanent orderly, additional orderlies, with pay at the rate of one for ten patients, may be employed if requisite; an additional orderly being allowed whenever there are at least five patients over the ten or multiple of ten. In case of emergency, however, the medical officer in charge will have the power to require that there shall be sufficient attendance for the sick at all hours of the day and night irrespective of the limitation above laid down.

3. In the case of brigades of artillery, where several batteries are serving together and their sick are treated in one hospital, only as many of the permanent hospital servants as are necessary according to the above-mentioned proportions for the aggregate number of sick will be retained on duty at the hospital.

Cl. 124.—Records of Soldiers' Services.

(Issued as a Special Army Circular on 14th September, 1869.)

1. The Secretary of State for War having had under his consideration the existing regulations for recording soldiers' services, and for the custody of the attestations and other documents connected therewith, has decided, with the concurrence of His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, that the following regulations shall be substituted for Articles 463 to 501, and 511 to 514 of the Explanatory Directions of 1848, which are hereby cancelled.

2. The service of the soldier will be recorded in two similar documents, viz.:—

(1st.) On the third page of the attestation, which will be called the "Record of Service," and will be in the custody of the paymaster, as directed in paragraph 11 of these Regulations, or in the Record Office of the Royal Artillery, as directed in paragraph 12.

(2nd.) On the "Register Sheet," which will as a general rule be at the head quarters of the regiment, battalion or brigade in which the soldier is serving, and will be in the charge of the commanding officer.

3. Officers commanding depôts of line regiments will transmit, with as little delay as possible, to the head quarters of the regiment, the register sheets of the men belonging to the service companies; and upon their receipt, an acknowledgment of which will be sent to the depôt without delay, the roll book will be discontinued.

4. The paymasters of the depôt brigade Royal Artillery will, with as little delay as possible, transfer the attestations of men serving abroad to the Record Office at Woolwich. The officer in charge of that office will transmit the register sheets now in his custody to the head quarters of the brigades to which the men belong, and upon their receipt (an acknowledgment of which will be sent to the Record Office without delay) the roll book will be discontinued.

Attestations.

5. The attestation of every recruit having been filled up according to the established form, will be sent to the head quarters of the corps, or to the depôt, if the corps is serving abroad.

6. The officer commanding will certify on the attestation that he is satisfied with the correctness of the document, and that the forms prescribed by the Mutiny Act appear to have been complied with.

7. When the recruit has been passed into the Service at the head quarters or depôt of the corps, the date of arrival and his regimental number will be written on the attestation.

8. The former services of a man re-enlisting into the Army will in no case be recorded, unless claimed by the man at the time of his attestation.

9. If a recruit, on being attested, should claim former service, he must produce his certificate of discharge. The commanding officer will communicate with the War Office stating the particulars of the service claimed; and no entry thereof will be made in the man's record until his claim shall have been admitted by the Secretary of State for War.

10. Whenever former service shall have been allowed, the cause of the soldier's discharge from his previous corps will be stated in the record immediately under the entry.

11. The attestation will be deposited with the paymaster, and filed in the attestation book. The paymaster will be held responsible for the safe custody of the attestations.

12. The attestations of men belonging to brigades of Royal Artillery, the head quarters of which are at foreign stations, will be deposited in the Record Office at Woolwich. The officer in charge of that office will be responsible for their safe custody.

13. The attestations will be filed in numerical order, and an alphabetical index of the men's names kept in each volume.

14. The officer in charge of the attestations will be held responsible that every variation affecting the soldier's service or pay, such as promotion, reduction, forfeiture or reduction of service, grant and forfeiture of good conduct pay, is inserted in the Record of Service as it occurs, or as soon as it is reported in the Casualty Returns sent from the service companies, as laid down in paragraph 511, Queen's Regulations.

15. The rules under which service is to be reckoned or to be deducted are laid down in the Army Service Act, Mutiny Act, and Articles of War, and in the Royal Warrants.

16. In recording the service of men promoted to any rank above that of corporal, a note will be made of the dates on which their length of service would have entitled them to a grant of good conduct pay, had they been still in the rank and file.

17. Should the original attestation, when it reaches the regiment, be defaced, or so illegibly drawn out as to render it useless as an authentic record, a certified copy may be substituted; in such case the commanding officer and the paymaster will report the fact to the War Office at the time the man arrives at head-quarters, and forward at the same time the original attestation.

18. When a soldier is transferred, or re-engages into another corps or brigade, his attestation will be forwarded to the corps or brigade receiving him; his services in the former being made up and certified to the end of the month in which the transfer takes place. The paymaster of the corps or brigade receiving the soldier will transmit to the paymaster of that from which he is transferred a receipt for the attestation so forwarded, which receipt will be filed in the attestation book of the latter in the place of the attestation removed therefrom.

19. In every case of transfer abroad the copy of the Record of Service there kept by the paymaster, under Article 23, will be completed to the end of the month in which the transfer takes place, and sent immediately to the paymaster of the regiment receiving the soldier. The latter paymaster will continue to record thereon, as prescribed in paragraphs 14 and 16, every requisite particular of the soldier's service while remaining abroad.

20. The attestations of all men enlisted abroad, except for the Royal Artillery and Royal Engineers, will be immediately forwarded to the paymaster of the depôt battalion to which the depôt of the regiment is attached. The attestations of men enlisted abroad for the Royal Artillery will be forwarded to the Record Office at Woolwich, and for the Royal Engineers to the Deputy Adjutant General of that corps.

21. When a soldier is discharged, his attestation will be annexed to the discharge documents.

22. When a regiment is ordered for foreign service, the attestations will be left in the charge of the officer commanding the depôt, and by him handed over to the paymaster of the depôt battalion to which the depôt of the regiment is attached. When a brigade of artillery is ordered for foreign service, the attestations will be transferred to the Record Office at Woolwich.

23. The paymaster or acting paymaster of the regiment, battalion, brigade or battery proceeding on foreign service, will take with him certified copies of the records of service of the men proceeding with it, regularly arranged in numerical order, and will continue to enter therein every variation of service, &c.

Regimental Register.

24. The register sheets will be filed in the regimental register in numerical order, and an alphabetical index of the men's names will be kept in each volume.

25. The date when the soldier was attested, his regimental number, name, age, parish, trade, description, &c., will be extracted from the attestation, and inscribed in the register sheet. The variations of service will be inserted as they occur, or as soon as they are reported in the casualty returns sent from the service companies, as laid down in paragraph 511, Queen's Regulations.

26. The officer commanding the regiment, battalion, or brigade, will cause the entries in the register sheets to be carefully compared with those in the records of service, or copies thereof, once at least in every three months, except in the case of the Royal Artillery or Royal Engineers detached at foreign stations.

27. The officer commanding will certify quarterly, in conjunction with the regimental paymaster, or acting paymaster, that all necessary entries have been properly made, both in the register sheet and record of service, or copy thereof, during the preceding three months. This certificate will be transmitted with the regimental pay list, except from corps serving in India. From line regiments serving in India, the certificate will be forwarded with the muster rolls. From brigades of Artillery in India, it will be sent to the Deputy Adjutant General, Royal Artillery, who will transmit it to the Secretary of State for War.

28. The period of the soldier's service abroad, his wounds, service in the field, and any remarkable act of bravery, as well as the grant of good conduct pay, will be recorded on the register sheet, likewise every case of desertion and of misconduct entailing forfeiture of service or good conduct pay.

29. The original register sheets of all soldiers will be kept at the head quarters of the corps, whether at home or abroad. The register sheets of men in the Royal Engineers will be kept at the office of the Deputy Adjutant General of that corps.

30. When a soldier is transferred, his original register sheet will be forwarded to the corps or brigade receiving him; his services in his former corps being made up and certified to the end of the month in which the transfer takes place, and the cause of the transfer being also stated. The corps or brigade receiving the soldier will transmit to that from which he is transferred the proper receipt for the register sheet so forwarded, which receipt will be filed in the regimental register of the latter regiment, in place of the sheet removed therefrom.

31. The corps or brigade receiving the transferred man will file his certified register sheet, giving him a fresh regimental number, and continuing the history of his services on the same register sheet. Thus, if a soldier, No. 350, of the 5th Foot, be transferred to the 20th Foot, receiving therein a fresh number, 540, the original entry in his register sheet will be retained, adding thereto the fresh entry $\frac{20\text{th Foot}}{540}$

32. If the register sheet should be defaced, a certified copy will be substituted, and the same proceedings will be taken as are directed in paragraph 17 of these Regulations.

33. When a corps embarks for foreign service the officer commanding will take with him the register sheets of such soldiers as proceed with it; but the register sheets of men remaining at home will be left in the charge of the officer commanding the depôt.

34. When men are sent home or become non-effective abroad, their register sheets will be forwarded to the officer commanding the depôt.

35. When a man is enlisted abroad his register sheet will be inserted in the regimental register in its proper place.

Regimental Number.

36. Every recruit, when finally passed into the service at home, will be designated by a regimental number, following that of the last recruit or transfer who joined the corps. This number will not be changed; and if the soldier is transferred, discharged, deserts or dies, it will not be given to any other man of the corps.

37. In all documents relating to the soldier, his regimental number will invariably precede his name.

38. The numeration of the men in the corps will only be changed by directions from the Secretary of State for War.

39. To obviate as much as possible the difficulty in assigning regimental numbers which may arise from the separation of a regiment into service and depôt companies, care must be taken that men who are transferred or enlisted into the regiment abroad be periodically reported to the officer commanding the depôt, who will allot to them the next vacant numbers in succession, and will return the list of names sent from abroad, with the proper regimental number affixed to each.

Cl. 125.—Mode of Charging Allowances Abroad.

1. From the 1st January, 1870, all allowances to which officers and men of Her Majesty's regiments stationed abroad are entitled regimentally will be charged in the regimental accounts.

2. The necessary certificates of the control officers will be required (as heretofore) as vouchers to support the charges.

Cl. 126.—Forage Allowance.

The rule which requires that a horse for which forage or forage allowance is issued shall be bonâ fide the property of the officer is relaxed. In future the only conditions which will be required are that the horse is effective, and is bonâ fide kept by and entirely at the disposal of the officer.

Cl. 127.—Form of Claim for Travelling Expenses.

1. The Form of Claim for Travelling Expenses at Home (W. O. Form 1071), prescribed by the Explanatory Directions appended to the Royal Warrant of 23rd December, 1857 (W. O Circular 204), has been revised as shown in the copy printed in the Appendix to the present Army Circular. All travelling claims at home will in future be made out on the revised form. [For Appendix, see separate copies.]

2. A supply will be forthwith distributed to the Army. Any further copies that may be required may be obtained from the War Office in the usual manner.

3. Applications for the supply of heel ropes will be sent to the Control Department for examination and for the order to supply.

4. Controllers will lay in a sufficient stock of heel ropes to meet the probable requirements for horses to be moved out of stables.

5. Control officers will draw the attention of officers commanding to any delays in returning heel ropes after being in use.

Cl. 130.—Examination of Weights and Measures.

Cl. 135.

The Secretary of State for War has directed that a report made to him by the Army Sanitary Committee on the purification of water for the use of the troops, shall be published for the general information of the Army. EMPLOYMENT OF SOLDIERS IN TRADES.

Cl. 136.

1. The Secretary of State for War with the view of encouraging the employment of soldiers in trades, and of affording them an opportunity of useful and profitable occupation, so far as may be consistent with the proper performance of their military duties, has approved of the issue of tools (as detailed in the list printed in the Appendix [see separate copies]) to regiments at the public expense, as funds can be made available, subject to the following conditions:—

2nd. They shall be kept in order, repaired or replaced when damaged, lost or worn out by use at the expense of the regiment.

Works performed by troops other than those alluded to in Army Circulars, 1869, Clause 47, § 8, will be carried out by day work or under agreement. When the latter mode is adopted, the amount paid will be 30 per cent. under the Royal Engineer triennial contract rates of the district, except when otherwise specially sanctioned by the Secretary of State for War.

G.O. 94.—Regimental Service Ammunition.

(Specially issued 7th September, 1869.)

Henceforward the service ammunition of the army is to be removed from the pouches, and placed in the regimental expense magazines.

General officers, commanding districts at home and stations abroad, will use their discretion should the state of the locality, in which the troops under their command are serving, be such as to require an exception to be made in this respect, in which case they will at once report the same to his Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief.

Proper care should be taken that a key of the magazine is at all times in possession of some responsible person in camp or barracks, with a view to the immediate issue of the ammunition if wanted on emergency.

Guards and escorts, or parties detached in aid of the civil power, will invariably have the requisite quantity of ammunition served out to them before going on duty. The supply is to be collected after the duty has been performed, and returned into the magazine.

G.O. 95.—H. M. Indian Troop Ships. (Quarter Master General.)

(Specially issued 7th September, 1869.)

With reference to Army Circulars for 1868, clause 84, it is hereby directed that the military commanding officer on board each of H. M. Indian troop ships, whether proceeding to or returning from India, is, upon arrival at Alexandria or Suez, to furnish the Deputy Quarter Master General in Egypt, for the information of the principal transport officer there, with a nominal list in duplicate, according to the form (Appendix A) of all officers' families for whom conveyance across the Isthmus is required.

One copy will be retained by the principal transport officer, and the other will be forwarded by him to the paymaster of the ship in which the troops are to re-embark.

G.O. 96.—H. M. Indian Troop Ships. (Quarter Master General.)

(Specially issued 7th September, 1869.)

The duties specified in Appendix B, are to be performed by troops embarked on board Her Majesty's Indian troop ships.

Accordingly, when the number of troops embarked will permit, the parties in question are to be struck off, by the military commanding officer, from the strength of the watches for such special duties, subject to such occasional modifications as circumstances may render necessary. These parties are to be either told off for the whole voyage without change, or if thought preferable by the military commanding officer, for the half-voyage, being relieved in the latter case by fresh parties from Suez to Bombay, and from Alexandria to England.

G.O. 97.—Embarkations. (Quarter Master General.)

(Applicable to home stations only.)

(Specially issued 11th September, 1869.)

The form of "nominal mess roll" (W. O. Form 1122) which has hitherto been in use for troops embarking at home for foreign service having been materially altered, commanding officers at home stations are directed to obtain a supply of the new forms at once from the War Office, and to comply with the instructions given on the fourth page thereof.

The form bears the same number as before—1122.

G.O. 98.—Embarkations. (Quarter Master General.)

Considerable expense and inconvenience having been occasioned by soldiers' wives being confined while on board the vessel in which they are embarked, women near their confinement are not in future to be embarked in mail or contract steamers, or other vessels on short voyages, such as to or from the Mediterranean, West Indies, British North America, &c., and the husbands of such women are to be detained with them.

This rule will also apply when troops are ordered to or from India and other stations by the overland route, but not when they are proceeding between this country and India, viâ the Cape, or on other long voyages.

G.O. 99.—Regimental Messes.

A notification having been received from the War Office to the effect that the Board of Inland Revenue do not intend to insist upon the strict enforcement of the law in respect to licences of civilian messmen of regiments, G. O. 63 of 1869 is hereby cancelled.

G.O. 100.—Schools.

The appointment of Colonel Gleig, half pay, late Royal Artillery, as Inspector of Army Schools in Great Britain, having been sanctioned by His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, and the Secretary of State for War, the following regulations for carrying out a system of visiting, inspecting and examining army schools in Great Britain, and for awarding certificates of education in the United Kingdom, are promulgated.

1. Mr. Vicars' duties in Ireland remain as heretofore, with the exception of those relating to certificates of education, from which he is relieved.

2. The duty of examining the schools in Great Britain will devolve henceforth upon superintending schoolmasters.

3. The inspector will visit the schools in Great Britain. He will likewise classify and recommend the award of certificates of education to non-commissioned officers and soldiers throughout the United Kingdom.

4. The inspector will visit every station in Great Britain at which superintending schoolmasters are posted, and all schools at out stations, at least once a year; reporting once a year to the Council, and upon such other occasions as he may deem necessary.

5. Examinations for certificates will be periodical, at such times as may be fixed hereafter.

6. On the receipt of instructions from the Council, or direct applications from commanding officers of regiments or brigades, for the examination of candidates for certificates of education, the inspector will forward the necessary questions to the commanding officer of such corps.

7. In transmitting the questions to commanding officers, the inspector will name the superintending schoolmaster to whom the answers are to be forwarded, and by whom they are to be examined, previous to being forwarded to the inspector.

SUPERINTENDING SCHOOLMASTERS.

Districts having been allotted to superintending schoolmasters (as specified in the margin*) the examination of all head quarter schools within such districts will devolve upon them under the following restrictions, viz.:—

1. No expense for proceeding to out stations shall, on any account, be incurred in the performance of this duty unless authorized by the Council of Military Education, and no detachments of corps are to be inspected.

2. No school shall be examined more than once in twelve months unless by special order.

3. Superintending schoolmasters in Great Britain will communicate with the Inspector of Army Schools previously to applying to the general officer commanding the district, for permission to examine an out station school.

4. They will likewise transmit to the Council, when visits are proposed, a time table showing the probable period of their absence, and the schools they propose to examine, together with the routes they intend to take.

5. All supervision of certificates of education being now centred in the Inspector of Army Schools, superintending schoolmasters throughout Great Britain and Ireland will receive from that officer the necessary instructions as to the examination of such candidates' papers as he may cause to be referred to them. All communications which superintending schoolmasters at home may have to make on this subject will be made to Colonel Gleig.

G.O. 101.—Returns.

The annual return of punishments awarded by courts martial (W. O. Form 750) is to be discontinued, and the information required on this head will, in future, be shown in the annual return of effectives, casualties and courts martial (W. O. Forms 747, &c.)

G.O. 102.—H.M. Indian Troop Ships.—Baggage. (Q. M. Gen.)

G. O. 70 of 1867 is hereby cancelled, and the following regulations are to be observed in respect to the baggage of troops passing through Egypt.

I. No baggage in excess of the regulated allowance either by cubic measurement or by weight is to be taken with the troops. Any extra quantity should be sent via the Cape of Good Hope under arrangements made by the troops.

II. It is necessary that all packages taken overland should be carefully packed, and be of moderate size, the utmost limit in this respect being a company's clothing chest. It is desirable that the cases should be of strong material, and that the parts should be fastened together with screws, especially the lids, which ought never to depend solely on the locks for security, even though they be of the best description.

III. They should be fitted with iron handles, rope beckets, or grommets worked into cleats of sufficient strength to bear the case without risk, should the entire weight fall upon one handle or becket. These precautions are recommended, as the Arabs employed as porters at the railway depôts work in gangs, and handle all articles quickly and roughly, in spite of the utmost vigilance on the part of their overlookers, or such as could be exercised by a baggage guard, occasioning frequently considerable damage to property.

IV. All packages to be stowed in the ship's baggage rooms should, before being forwarded to the port of shipment, bear a large printed label showing the corps to which they belong, and marked "Baggage Room."

V. A list should be kept by each corps of all packages, with their weight and measurement, forwarded for embarkation and actually put on board, to enable the officer in command of the troops to prepare the return required at paragraph 44 of the "Instructions for Troops passing through Egypt," dated 2nd September, 1869.

VI. Baggage stowed in the baggage room will not be accessible to the owners until the troops are disembarked in India or in the United Kingdom.

VII. Baggage for use on the voyage should bear the names or initials of the owners in clear characters, and be labelled with the word "Cabin;"—reasonable accommodation having been provided for such baggage in each officer's cabin, and further space in a baggage room for the use of married officers with their wives and families. A clear depth of 16 inches has been allowed under the bedplaces in the cabins to admit a trunk of the regulation size for India, viz., 36 inches long, 15 inches wide, and 14 inches deep, which size should not be exceeded in any package taken into the cabins.

* Edinburgh, Woolwich, Aldershot, Portsmouth, Devonport, Dover, London, Aldershot, Manchester.

VIII. A depth of 16 inches has also been left under the lower tier of bunks in the compartments appropriated to the wives of the staff sergeants and soldiers for their articles in daily use, but the baggage belonging to those persons will require special attention and vigilance on the part of commanding officers, for should it not be carefully packed and directed, very great inconvenience, with discomfort to the families, may ensue, and serious complication and trouble arise with the railway authorities and officers of the Egyptian Transit Administration, who will be in charge of the baggage through from port to port in Egypt.

IX. All cabin baggage landing or embarking in Egypt should go with the troops in the barges, and on no account should it be mixed up, even for a moment, with the baggage intended for the baggage room, as great delay would be caused in again dividing it.

X. As medicine chests would be liable to great risk of injury in the transit through Egypt, a special dispensary for the use of the troops has been provided and fitted in each of Her Majesty's Indian troop ships; all articles specially required for hospital purposes having been supplied. The dispensary will be in the charge of a serjeant of the Army Hospital Corps, who will act as compounder of medicines on board. The requisite supply of medicines will be kept on board each vessel.

G.O. 103.—India.—Overland Troop Service through Egypt. (Quarter Master General.)

G. O. 71 of 1867 is hereby cancelled, and the following instructions for Troops passing through Egypt are issued for general information:—

I. On arrival of the troop ship at Alexandria, or Suez, no person is to land, unless under special authority, till arrangements have been made by the proper officer for the disembarkation of the troops.

II. No person to be allowed to bathe on account of the danger of sharks.

III. As soon as the troop ship is anchored, an officer of the Quarter Master General's Department will come on board, with a view to arrange for the baggage and troops landing.

IV. Should the ship arrive in the harbour of Alexandria any hour before noon, the "heavy" and "cabin" baggage will leave the ship that afternoon, the train conveying it starting from the transit wharf the same evening. Should, however, the ship arrive after noon, the above arrangements will hold good for the following day.

SUEZ.—As the disembarkation of both troops and baggage at Suez depends on the arrival at Alexandria of H. M. troop ship, no fixed day can be named for their landing; but in other respects all detailed arrangements for Alexandria will hold equally good at Suez.

V. A baggage guard of two officers (single) and 16 non-commissioned officers and rank and file (single) is to be detailed, and is to land in the barges with the baggage. The above strength is on no account to be exceeded.

VI. It is very important that each man of the guard should be supplied before leaving the ship with a ration consisting of ½ lb. of cooked preserved meat, and ½ lb. biscuit (see also paragraph 13).

VII. An officer of the Quarter Master General's Department will be on shore ready to receive the baggage guard, and to point out the spots where the sentries are to be posted. The duties of the sentries will be simply to see that no package is conveyed in rear or to the flank of their posts. They are not to interfere with the working of the railway porters.

VIII. The sea-kit bags to be placed in valises, specially provided, and which will be furnished to the troops on board by an officer of the Quarter Master General's Department on arrival of the ship in Egypt, and will be landed with the "cabin baggage." Immediately on re-embarking on the other side of the Isthmus, the sea-kit bags are to be removed from the valises, and the latter returned to the deputy quarter master general or his assistant. Each valise will hold eight sea-kits.

IX. The "heavy" and "cabin" baggage are kept separate and distinct, and a large barge for the "heavy," and a smaller one for the "cabin" will be provided by the principal transport officer and agent for the Government of India in Egypt, or his representative at Suez. The heavy baggage will include the cases of arms which will have been packed on board, previous to landing, in cases in charge of the captain of the ship, specially provided in accordance with G.O. 86, of 1869, which directs that regiments are to embark with their arms in possession of the men; that the rifles are to be then placed in the racks, and packed about the day before the expected arrival at Alexandria or Suez in the cases in which they are to be conveyed across the Isthmus. On re-embarking they will be unpacked and again placed in the racks.

If proper precautions are taken on board to keep the two descriptions of baggage separate the one from the other, no mixing can subsequently take place. On the barges being moored at the jetty, an officer of the Quarter Master General's Department will be in attendance to receive the baggage landed under the superintendence of the transport officer by gangs of coolies working under the orders of a railway official, first, the "heavy" baggage, which is placed in trucks, marked on both sides "heavy baggage." When the whole of the "heavy" baggage has been loaded, the doors of the trucks containing it are locked in the presence of the officer of the Quarter Master General's Department and of the officer commanding the guard.

The "cabin baggage" (which is not touched until the "heavy" has been locked up) is then taken out of the barge, and the same process is gone through. On arrival of the baggage at the other side of the Isthmus the above programme is reversed, and the "heavy" and "cabin" baggage stowed separately in the barges prepared to receive it.

X. The troops and families will disembark on the afternoon of the day succeeding that of the landing of the "heavy" and "cabin" baggage; and they will proceed by railway through Egypt, in two divisions, of strength as nearly equal as possible, and by separate trains, at one hour's interval. Companies or detachments should not be broken up when it can be avoided.

XI. The first division to be under the command of the second senior officer on board. The second, or head-quarter division, is to be under the officer commanding the troops.

XII. A supply of 200 waterproof coats and 200 waterproof caps, each fitted with a strong becket for hanging up, will be kept on board for the use of the troops embarking in the two vessels, to be employed between the United Kingdom and Alexandria. They will be placed in charge of the paymaster of the ship, and when issued by him for use by the troops, the value of any which may be lost, namely, 10*s.* a coat, and 2*s.* 2*d.* a cap, is to be paid to the paymaster of the ship, by the officer commanding the troops who may be on board. The military commanding officer is held responsible that they are returned to the paymaster before disembarkation.

XIII. Every man, woman and child over five years of age will be supplied, before leaving the ship, with a ration, consisting of ½ lb. cooked preserved meat, and ½ lb. biscuit, for consumption on the journey through Egypt, and each child under five years of age will be supplied before leaving the ship, with ½ lb. fresh bread. Commanding officers should have returns prepared of the numbers of men, women and children requiring to be supplied with the ration and fresh bread, and should see that each person has the ration in possession before landing from the vessel.

XIV. All officers to be in undress uniform on disembarkation for proceeding by rail through Egypt.

XV. Great coats of the men should be carried ready to wear in the trains; packs in the hands, not on the back.

XVI. A subaltern and a non-commissioned officer are to come on shore at 1 o'clock p.m. of the day on which the troops have to leave the ship, for the purpose of examining the condition of the several railway carriages and of the panes of glass.

They will be accompanied by a military clerk of the Quartermaster General's Department and an official of the Egyptian government railway.

On arrival at destination a similar inspection will be made by the same officials, and the amount of damage done by the troops in transit ascertained; a voucher specifying the sum claimed by the railway, and admitted on this account will be signed on the spot by the deputy quarter master general or his assistant; made over to the officer commanding the troops, through the subaltern who has performed the inspections, and the former will pay the amount on the spot to the officer of the Quarter Master General's Department, who will hand it over to the railway official. The senior non-commissioned officer in each carriage is accountable for any damage done to it.

XVII. The disembarkation at Alexandria is usually made in the following order, namely:—

The married families of the first division leave the ship 2·30 o'clock p.m.
Single men of the first division at 3 o'clock p.m.
The train with the first division starts at 4 o'clock p.m.

Digitized by Google

The married families of the second division leave the ship at 3·30 o'clock p.m.
Single men of second division at 4 o'clock p.m.
The train with second division starts at 5 o'clock p.m.
The quarter master to accompany the second or head quarter division.

XVIII. On arrival of the small steamers with married families or troops at the jetty at Alexandria, they should be disembarked at once, as the steamers have to return to the ship for more troops.

Should the train not be ready, the married families can be taken under the shelter of the covered platform, and the men can be drawn up in column on the ground adjacent to the jetty until the officer of the Quarter Master General's Department is ready to point out the accommodation that has been allotted to them.

XIX. The order of disembarkation at Suez will be similar to that observed at Alexandria, with the following exceptions :—

First. The whole of the men, women and children of the first division will leave the ship's side at the same time, namely, about 2 p.m., and the whole of the second or head quarter division an hour later.

Second. On the arrival of the small steamers with married families or troops at Suez, they are not to disembark until the receipt of an order to do so from the deputy assistant quarter master general.

XX. The officers of the Quarter Master General's Department in Egypt will arrange the accommodation in the railway carriages for the officers, their wives and families in such manner as they may desire, if they will make up their parties for travelling.

The officer commanding the troops is to furnish a return, in duplicate, according to a form which will be provided in Egypt (and which should bear his signature) to the deputy quarter master general, or his assistant, by 10 o'clock on the forenoon of the day on which the troops are to travel by train. Their names will then be placed on printed labels (headed "Officers") on small boards suspended from the doors of the carriages.

No subsequent change can be made.

XXI. The commanding officer is held responsible that officers leave the ship with their proper divisions.

XXII. The "light" baggage, which means a carpet bag, or small hand portmanteau, a basket, with rugs or cloak for each individual officer, or lady, is to be carried into the carriages by the railway porters.

XXIII. It should be clearly explained to the troops that the railway porters are at the termini of Alexandria and Suez, for the purpose of conveying their "light" baggage from the railway platform to the steamers; and that no remuneration is to be given to them or is expected by them.

XXIV. The officers to be fairly distributed to look after the men in the transit through Egypt, whether the officers belong to the same corps as the men or not.

XXV. The troop carriage used on the Egyptian line holds forty-eight men. The men will enter at one end of the troop carriage, and the officers are to see that their men fill up the seats from the farther end. A non-commissioned officer is to stand at the door of each carriage and count the men into it.

XXVI. The troop carriages are all numbered on printed labels, No. 1 being nearest the engine.

XXVII. After every three troop carriages there will be a first class carriage for officers. The officer commanding each division will be in the third compartment of the first class carriage which follows the sixth troop carriage.

XXVIII. Married men to accompany their wives and families to and in the trains.

XXIX. Prior to disembarkation the married families of each division should be told off for the accommodation allotted to them, which will be in the proportion detailed in writing by the deputy quarter master general or his assistant.

XXX. Two officers to each division to be told off to look after the "married families" in transit through Egypt, to see they get into the carriages allotted to them; and that they remain in their carriages, which are labelled in large printed letters "married families," and are the farthest from the engine.

XXXI. The guard and prisoners will accompany the second or head-quarter division. The strength of the guard and the number of prisoners is to be reported to the deputy quarter master general, or his assistant, by the commanding officer of the troops on his landing at Alexandria or Suez.

XXXII. The sick who can walk are to go with their batteries, squadrons, or companies.

A return signed by the surgeon in medical charge of the troops of the number of sick for whom special accommodation is required, is to be furnished to the deputy quarter master general, or his assistant, by the military commanding officer on board, by 10 o'clock on the forenoon of the day on which the troops are to disembark. These men will proceed with the second, or head-quarter division, in charge of the senior medical officer.

XXXIII. A medical officer to be placed in charge of the first division.

XXXIV. A field companion and a tin bottle of water will be handed to the officer in medical charge of each division. These articles (with any bedding furnished in Egypt for the use of the sick) are not to be taken on board ship; but on arrival of each division at its destination are to be given to the deputy quarter master general at Alexandria, or to the principal medical officer at Suez, on the railway platform.

XXXV. If any sick are left in Egypt, their great coats, packs, sea bag (if any) and complete kit, are to be left with them, but no arms or accoutrements; and a No. 1 report is to be given to the officer of the Quarter Master General's Department. The medical officer is to give a statement of their cases to the surgeon of Suez Hospital.

XXXVI. The bandsmen and drummers are to travel together.

The band instruments and the drums will be placed in the baggage van (which accompanies the troop train) to prevent injury in transit.

XXXVII. A trumpeter or bugler to attend the senior officer in charge of each division, and to sit in the troop carriage next in rear of the Commanding Officer's carriage. No other bugler to sound.

XXXVIII. After the troops have been placed in the carriages and previous to the train starting, the officers are to remain with their men until the bugler has been ordered by the commanding officer to sound "The Close," on which the officers will report that their men are all present and get into their own carriages. The commanding officer will then order "The Advance" to be sounded, when the train will move off at a slow pace.

XXXIX. Each train is about twelve hours crossing the Isthmus and stops five times at stations, where there will be lights and drinking water.

Arrival at any of these stations will be notified by "The Halt" being sounded. No man to leave the carriage at any other station.

At three of the stations there are ladies' waiting-rooms.

On the trumpet or bugle sounding "The Close" every man to take his place, and the officers to see that all are present.

XL. The officers can obtain refreshment at "Kafr Zayat" when proceeding from Alexandria, and at "Zagazig" when proceeding from Suez. Charge for supper 4*s.* each.

As the men and women carry their own provisions, they are not to be allowed to enter the refreshment-rooms, and non-commissioned officers (other than those in charge of troop carriages) should be told off and placed at the doors to prevent their doing so.

XLI. On the arrival of the trains at destination, the troops and their families will on no account quit their carriages until ordered to do so by an officer of the Quarter Master General's Department, and then only under the superintendence of their own officers.

XLII. Officers and their families can obtain coffee before re-embarking, on payment of 4*d.* a cup, or, with milk, 6*d.* a cup.

The men, also their wives and children over five years of age, will, before re-embarking, each be provided with a cup of coffee, without payment. Each child under five years of age, before re-embarking, will be supplied with hot milk or tea, without payment.

It should be impressed upon the soldiers and upon their families that the coffee supplied to them at the railway termini of Alexandria and Suez is only "refreshment," and not a "meal." The latter will be ready for them on board ship on re-embarking.

XLIII. The officer in command of the troops will, on arrival at port of disembarkation in Egypt, be furnished with a form of "transit return," in duplicate, and will, on re-embarkation, make over the same, duly filled in, to the officer of the Quarter Master General's Department for transmission to Head Quarters.

XLIV. On arrival at port of disembarkation in Egypt, the officer commanding troops ——— Officer Commanding.

This return should show the total weight and measurement of the baggage on board, and should when practicable be countersigned by the quarter master or other officer who has seen it weighed or measured in this country or in India. The total quantity of baggage belonging to the several detachments on board to be given in one line, that of the regiment on board being shown separately.

XLV. The military commanding officer on board, on arrival at Alexandria or at Suez, is to furnish the officer of the Quarter Master General's Department in Egypt with a nominal list, in duplicate, according to a form which will be supplied, of all officers' wives and families for whom conveyance across the Isthmus of Suez is required. The expenses of their railway transit through Egypt are chargeable against the officers, who will pay all expenses before landing in England, or in India to the paymaster of the ship in which the voyage is completed.

XLVI. The charges for the messing of their families on board ship are also to be paid by the officers for each separate half of the voyage to the paymasters of the ships before landing. Officers embarked must be careful to comply with the instructions contained in clause 24, Army Circulars, 1868, and see that their messing certificates are properly signed by the commander or paymaster of the ships before landing.

In case of wilful damage being committed by officers a special report of the circumstances is to be made by the officer in command of the troops to the Quarter Master General at head quarters through the officer superintending the disembarkation of the troops.

G.O. 104.—Recruiting.

With reference to paragraph 1335 of the "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army" regarding chest measurement, it is directed that the recruit is to be measured with the arms hanging, instead of "placed straight above his head."

G.O. 105.—Recruiting.

I. It having been decided that the medical examination of a recruit by the staff surgeon at the head quarters of a recruiting district shall be regarded as final, the present practice of assembling medical boards to review such decision is to be discontinued.

II. On the arrival of a district recruit at the head quarters of a regiment or depôt battalion, the surgeon in charge thereof—should he not concur in the opinion of the district staff surgeon—will fill in W. O. Form 584, countersigned by the principal medical officer, should there be one at the station, and the officer commanding the regiment or depôt battalion will then forward this report to the Adjutant General for decision, stating his opinion whether the recruit be eligible and likely to re-enlist should he be discharged.

This form must contain the fullest information as regards all the medical disqualifications.

III. District recruits passed by civilian medical practitioners (including militia medical officers) if found unfit by the district staff surgeon, will, with the concurrence of the inspecting field officer, be discharged without further reference, but the report on W. O. Form 584 will always be sent in duplicate to the Adjutant General.

IV. The inspecting field officer, should he consider the recruit eligible and likely to re-enlist, can detain him till the decision of his Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief be given.

V. When a district recruit is passed primarily by a military medical officer, and considered unfit by the district staff surgeon, W. O. Form 584 will be sent in duplicate to the Adjutant General for instructions, as at present.

VI. The medical examination by civilian medical practitioners of direct recruits is not considered final.

VII. When a direct recruit is considered unfit by a regimental surgeon, he will bring him before the principal medical officer, if possible, and should he concur in the unfitness, report the case to the Adjutant General on W. O. Form 584, in duplicate, for further instructions, through the commanding officer.

VIII. These instructions modify paragraph 1351 of the "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army," bringing all cases of medical disqualifications under section "d" of that paragraph.

G.O. 106.—Courts Martial.

When courts martial are re-assembled for the purpose of revising their finding, and when any alteration therein is made, it is absolutely necessary that the sentence in such revised finding shall be given afresh, and it is not sufficient for the court to state that they adhere to their former sentence in such cases.

Great inconvenience has arisen in consequence of irregularities in this respect, and the attention of confirming officers is especially called to the foregoing instructions.

G.O. 107.—Employment of Soldiers in Trades. (Quarter Master General.)

His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief wishes to draw the attention of general and other officers commanding to clause 136, Army Circulars, 1869, in which the Secretary of State for War, recognizing the advantages to be obtained by the employment of soldiers in trades, has approved of the issue of tools to regiments, in the first instance, at the public expense.

The object His Royal Highness has in view, with the full concurrence of the Secretary of State for War, is to render regiments independent of external aid, and to enable them to perform for the Royal Engineer Department such works as are executed by civil contractors. In establishing a sound regimental system on this basis, much will depend upon the co-operation and assistance given to it by Commanding Royal Engineers, and this, His Royal Highness feels assured, will be accorded to the fullest extent practicable.

His Royal Highness feels confident that general and other officers commanding will support these views, and endeavour by all means in their power to commence and carry out a scheme, which, when completed, must result in great benefit, not only to the State, but to the troops generally.

G.O. 108.—Army Telegraphy and Signalling. (Q. M. Gen.)

His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief is pleased to notify, in reference to clause 21, Army Circulars, 1869, that the selection of officers for instruction in army telegraphy and signalling at the School of Military Engineering, Chatham, will rest with officers commanding corps, when called upon by general officers commanding districts, or others, to furnish names for each class.

Applications from individual officers to head quarters for permission to go through the course are prohibited.

By Command.
